Dedicated to the Fight

Our Vision

Be passionate challengers

Our Vision is to strive with the utmost effort and strong determination to meet the challenge of combining our individual competencies to deliver new, innovative drugs to patients. We will continue being the most passionate champion in the fight against disease and pain, together with patients, their families, and healthcare providers.

against Disease and Pain

Our Values

ONO aims to be a world-changing team

The greater the challenge, the more passionately ONO will rise to meet it
